

Track Your Time

Save time tracking departments, employees, and projects all with one easy to use and maintain time and labor management system. Southwestern Payroll powered by Cloud works to eliminate unnecessary spreadsheets and dual entry. Expertly manage your workforce with a solution that supports your business goals, compliance needs, and variable hour scheduling challenges.

Key Features

Management Tools

Enjoy user-friendly, cloud-based management tools that allow you to track employee time and allocate your labor resources, reducing compliance risk, and creating a culture of accountability.

Compliance

Meet organizational, federal, state, and local labor compliance requirements while accommodating employee leave requests, unexpected absences, and census changes.

Scheduling

Organize your schedules with ease and accuracy while ensuring complete coverage, reducing overtime and balancing workloads.

Hardware

Choose from touch screens, biometric readers, pin readers, badge readers, and more. Find the right solution to fit your needs.

Mobile

Access and manage your time and labor tasks with a secure, modern, personalized mobile experience to improve your workforce productivity.

PTO Requests

Automatically calculate time off balances and analyze leave-related trends employee data, improve compliance, and reduce leave liability exposure.

Employee Access

Automate time tracking and simplify your labor management workflow while empowering employees with access to their time and benefit information.

Payroll Processing

Pull in time and labor data for quick and easy payroll processing.

Time and labor tools that meet your needs.

Meet Southwestern Payroll powered by Cloud.